The diagram illustrates the association between gestures, mouth shapes, and phonemes for the vowels a, e, i, o, u. It is presented within a black-bordered box with two cartoon hands on the sides. At the top of the box, five line drawings of a person's head and shoulders are shown, each with a different hand gesture. Below these are five red-bordered images of mouths in different shapes corresponding to the vowels. Arrows point from each mouth image to a red phoneme symbol below it. A small 'Comunicar-nos' logo is in the top right corner of the box.
